This musical score for Alto Saxophone features the classic bluesy melody of Stevie Wonder's "Superstition". The piece is set in common time with a key signature of one flat. The tempo is marked at 100 BPM. The score includes two staves of music with corresponding lyrics written below the notes. The lyrics describe various superstitions and beliefs, such as writing on walls, washing faces, climbing ladders, and keeping dreams. The music consists of eighth-note patterns and bass notes, with some measure rests and dynamic markings like 'f' and 'fff'. The score concludes with a final section starting at measure 26, indicated by a '2' above the staff and an '8' below it.
